

2021-22 Preview

The Bradley men's basketball team saw its two-year run atop the Missouri Valley Conference halted during the 2020-21 campaign. After winning consecutive conference titles for the first time in school history in 2019 and 2020, a young BU team battled a consistently-changing lineup during the pandemic season en route to a first-round exit at Arch Madness.

In 2021-22, the Braves look to again contend for the conference championship and NCAA Tournament bid with a mix of eight returning players and eight newcomers, featuring both experienced transfers and freshmen.

The BU frontcourt highlights the 2021-22 roster, led by seniors Ari Boya and Ja'Shon Henry – a duo that has never lost an MVC Tournament game in three years on campus as they missed last season's Arch Madness with injuries – plus sophomore Rienk Mast.

Henry appeared in 21 games as a junior last season and ranked third on the team with a career-best 10.9 points per game – the most by any Valley player with fewer than five starts since Creighton's Terrell Taylor in 2001-02. A member of the 2021 All-Bench Team and 2020 Most Improved Team, Henry looks to take another step as a senior as the program's most experienced player. Boya played in only nine games as a junior but his impact was obvious as BU allowed only 59.3 points per game with him on the court and 70.0 points in the games he missed.

Mast looks to expand on an outstanding rookie season a year ago. After missing the 2019-20 season with an injury, the Netherlands native was named to the All-Freshman Team with 8.6 points per game and 5.8 rebounds – leading BU with 13.3 points and 6.9 rebounds the final 11 games of the season.

Sophomore forwards Darius Hannah and Connor Linke also return and look to build upon their freshman campaigns, while Bradley adds Malevy Leons to the frontcourt mix. Leons was named the NJCAA National Player of the Year in 2021 after leading Mineral Area College to its best season in school history.

The team's leader in 3-pointers a season ago, Ville Tahvanainen is the top returning guard for Bradley. A key player in BU's 2020 MVC title run, Tahvanainen averaged 8.6 points per game as a sophomore with a team-best 47 triples.

Sophomore Jayson Kent also returns for BU in the backcourt after starting four games as a rookie. Tahvanainen and Kent will be joined by a number of new faces, including graduate transfer Mikey Howell – who ranked 12th nationally in assists last season – junior college transfer Terry Roberts plus freshmen Max Ekono, Connor Hickman and Zek Montgomery.

Having reestablished Bradley men's basketball as a championship-level program, Brian Wardle is in his seventh year as head coach of the Braves. In his first six seasons on the BU sideline, Wardle has built Bradley into a perennial Missouri Valley Conference contender, capped by winning back-to-back championships in 2019 and 2020.

Named the school's 14th head coach in March 2015, Wardle was first tasked with turning around a Bradley program that had not posted a winning conference record in the previous six seasons with the Braves finishing last in the Valley the year before his arrival. Featuring the nation's youngest team in his first season on campus and the youngest in the conference each of his first three years, Wardle quickly improved BU's fortunes – increasing by eight wins in 2016-17 and seven victories in 2017-18, while earning the school's first 20-win campaign in nine years to cap the early success.

After three seasons reconstructing the Bradley roster, it all paid off in Wardle's fourth and fifth years at the helm. Bradley opened the 2018-19 season by defeating Penn State in the Cancun Challenge Championship as the Braves claimed their first regular-season tournament trophy since 1983. The early-season crown wouldn't be the last trophy the Braves lifted that campaign as Wardle helped BU win its first Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title in 31 years.

Not content with a one-year run, Wardle and the Braves repeated as Valley champions in 2020 with an 80-66 victory in the title game against Valparaiso. Bradley won back-to-back conference crowns for the first time in school history, while becoming the ninth team in conference history to accomplish the feat. It also marked the first time since 1954 and 1955 that the Braves qualified for the NCAA Tournament in consecutive campaigns.

When it was all said and done, Wardle's first two recruiting classes at Bradley graduated as champions. The Braves also won at least 20 games in three-straight seasons before national postseason tournaments for the first time since 1962 with its 23 victories in 2019-20 marking the most by a BU team since 1993-94.

Individual success has also become common under Wardle's mentorship. Bradley has featured eight all-conference performers during the last four seasons – leading the league with three selections during the 2019-20 campaign, while landing multiple honorees in three-straight seasons from 2018 to 2020 for the first time in 12 years. Nate Kennell also became the first BU student-athlete to earn an individual league honor since 2013 as he was named the MVC Sixth Man of the Year in 2019. Additionally, Bradley has featured six All-Freshman Team honorees – the most in the league during that span – three Most Improved Team accolades and one All-Defensive Team recipient in Wardle's six seasons on campus.

The success showcased by Wardle at Bradley is nothing new for the head coach. Prior to taking over the Braves program in 2015, Wardle compiled a 95-65 overall record at Green Bay, a five-year run that culminated with consecutive 24-win seasons and three-straight postseason appearances. The 2014 Horizon League Coach of the Year, Wardle led the Phoenix to a 24-7 mark and a regular-season conference title in 2013-14, while following up with a 24-9 mark in 2014-15.

Wardle's recruiting efforts at Green Bay resulted in several players of note. Alec Brown was the 50th overall selection in the 2014 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns after the 7-foot-1 center was named the 2014 Horizon League Defensive Player of the Year, while Keifer Sykes was also the two-time Horizon League Player of the Year.

While building for success on the floor, Wardle has also made academic success and community involvement pillars of the Bradley program. The Braves have recorded at least a 3.0 grade point average in all 12 semesters under Wardle's leadership at BU with student-athletes being voted MVC Scholar-Athletes a total of 18 times during his six seasons on campus. The Braves have also been very active within the Peoria community and consistently lead the athletic department in volunteer service, totaling more than 5,000 hours of community service under Wardle's leadership.

Following the 2013-14 season, Wardle added Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors to his collection, recognizing the head coach for not only success on the basketball court but also for displaying moral integrity off it as well.

Wardle played collegiately at Marquette and helped the Golden Eagles to a pair of NIT appearances in 1998 and 2000. As a senior in 2001, Wardle served as team captain and finished as the second-leading scorer in Conference USA by pumping in 18.8 points per game.

Wardle and his wife, Lecia, have three children – daughters Mya and Emery, and son, Davin.
